

The Rosary has a Cross, an Invitatory bead, 4 sets of 7 beads that are called the Weeks, and 4 beads which separate the beads in the Weeks, called the Cruciform beads because they make the form of a cross.

The 7 beads in the Weeks section of the Rosary represent the 7 days of the week and also 7 is the number of spiritual perfection. The total number of beads is 33, which represents the number of years of Jesus' earthly ministry.

HOW TO PRAY THE ANGLICAN ROSARY:

To begin, you can select one of the prayers in this guide or use other prayers you know. The way you pray is to follow the pattern. You may also choose to combine portions of any of the prayers, i.e., using the Cross prayer from one prayer, the Invitatory from another, and Weeks or Cruciform prayers from another. The important part of doing the Rosary is to do it at a steady, preferably slow, pace. It is also suggested to do it three times, which represents the Trinity.

1. Begin at the Cross bead, choosing a prayer for the Cross.
2. Move to the Invitatory bead and choose a prayer for the Invitatory bead.
3. Move to the Cruciform and choose a prayer to pray. This prayer can be used on all the Cruciform beads or you may choose different prayers for each one.
4. Choose a prayer or combination of prayers for each of the Weeks beads.
5. Pray the circlet 3 times through.
6. On the last time, select a prayer for the Invitatory bead and finally the Cross. It is suggested to pray the Lord's Prayer the last time through on the Invitatory bead.

Doing the Rosary in a slow, steady pace, and pausing for reflection after each completion may bring you into a deeper relationship with God.

The Rosary may be done individually or in a group.

May the Rosary be a blessing to you and yours.
